Shinyribs

LAGO FEST HEADLINER: Shinyribs

Shinyribs defies genres as a sonic melting pot of Texas blues, New Orleans R&B funk, horn-driven Memphis soul, country twang, border music, big band swing, and roots-rock. The Austin-based nine-piece (sometimes 10-piece) supergroup is led by Kevin Russell, the charismatic frontman with colorful suits and extravagant shoes who continuously swaps out an electric guitar for a ukulele and never falls short of creating a cinematic experience with on-stage antics that often include him donning a light-up cloak or leading a conga line through the crowd.

Tomar and the FCs

Back by popular demand, Tomar and the FCs has been featured on the Desk Concert Series, played the Austin City Limits Music Festival, made yearly appearances at SXSW, and was voted in the top Five on The Austin Chronicle's Music Poll for Blues, Funk, and Soul. Their album "Heart Attack" was recorded and mixed with Grammy winning artist/engineer Adrian Quesada of the band Black Pumas who received six Grammy Award nominations in 2021, performed at the Grammys, and performed at President Biden's inauguration.

Blue Water Highway

Packing glorious, three-part vocal harmonies and tight yet inventive musicianship, this Lone Star state-based quartet has critics hailing them as one of the brightest hopes for modern Americana. Blue Water Highway boasts three excellent albums including its latest - Paper Airplanes.

Aaron McDonnell

With true purpose one of the richest, most resonant voices you'll ever hear, Aaron's songs explore age-old themes of love, heartache, failure, and faith. They are classic in their influence and unpretentious in their delivery. At once familiar and fresh, Aaron McDonnell is both an authentic homage to the sounds of the past and an exciting example of what is to come.

April at the Lago Vista Public Library

We are happy to announce that on-site Children's Story Time has returned to the Library Wednesday mornings from 10-11 a.m. as we promote children's books and the joy of reading.

April is National Poetry Month at the Library, a celebration that was launched by the Academy of American Poets in April 1996. Whether you are new to poetry or are familiar with the uplifting ideas, wisdom, and soul searching that poetry can offer, we encourage you to take time to enjoy the thoughts and ideas of poets of all ages and from all corners of the world. Check out the Library's poetry collections for adults and kids. For fans of e-books or e-audiobooks, visit our online catalog to access titles from Overdrive or to view numerous titles that can be downloaded for free from Gutenberg.org or librivox.org websites. Visit poets.org for some great links to more information on poets and poetry.

More information about Library programs and services can be found at lagovista.lib.tx.us or on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest. Contact us at 512-267-3868, or email us at lagolibrary@lago-vista.org.
