April at the Library

Saturday, April 6 (10 a.m. to 1 p.m.) in the Library Meeting Room: Eclipse Program, "Here Comes the Sun Again." Lago Vista resident, Tom Campbell, a retired science teacher and amateur astronomer who does public outreach with the Austin Astronomical Society will present an informational program to adults and children on eclipses and orbit of the moon in respect to the earth. To prepare attendees for the April 8th eclipse, Tom will bring a telescope and talk about safe ways to view the eclipse safely.

Thursday, April 11 (10:15 a.m. - Noon): The Eclectic Book Club will host a special program by author and Lakeway resident, David Nichols, who will talk about his first published novel, The Brotherhood of Pandora. The event is free and open to the public.

National Library Week (April 7-13, 2024) is an annual celebration highlighting the valuable role libraries, librarians, and library workers play in transforming lives and strengthening our communities. This year's theme, "Ready, Set, Library!" emphasizes that libraries are vibrant centers where people can access print and digital materials for free, connect with others, use public computers and Wi-Fi, learn new skills, attend author talks, workshops/classes, book clubs, and much more. The Library offers an inclusive and supportive environment where everyone is welcome! Please visit the Library and get a free membership card, renew your expired card, see a display of local artists, and/or check out some programs/classes/events.

Be sure to visit the Library's new website, <https://tx-lagovista.civicplus.com/459/Public-Library> to see a calendar of events and lists of Library services and programs for all ages. Check out our new creative "Teen Library League" that will meet from 6 - 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday March 5th, 26th, and April 2nd. Also, find us on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest. Contact us at 512-267-3868, or by email lagolibrary@lagovistatexas.gov
