The special programs reported in May included an art display reception, an LVPD community event, a voter registration event, and a 2-day Friends of the Library book sale.

An increase in the number of children's program attendees during June and July are a result of the Library's Summer Reading Program, which included 11 sessions of paid performers.

Two special events during August included an art display reception and two City sponsored Open Enrollment sessions for employees.

Two special events during September were a special LVPD Community Listending Event and a quarterly meeting of the Presidents Council.
