

Parks and Recreation September monthly report

September was a challenging month for the Parks and Recreation Department due to a staffing shortage. The director and coordinator worked hard to maintain all park facilities. Fortunately, we have successfully hired a new maintenance staff member and are in the process of training him. At Rusty Allen Airport, we faced a setback when our part-time airport manager resigned, so staff will be posting the position online. This was a significant loss for the airport.