

ABOUT

Adam C. Benefield serves as Place 2 Council Member for the City of Lago Vista. A resident since 2021, he brings extensive executive leadership experience to his role, having served as CEO for multiple companies over the past two decades.

Prior to his election to the City Council, Mr. Benefield demonstrated his commitment to public service through his involvement on both the Planning and Zoning Commission and the Building and Standards Commission. His civic engagement extends beyond local government, including service as a Varsity Boy Scout Coach and PTA President.

As a Council Member, he is dedicated to managing Lago Vista's growth while preserving the community's cherished quality of life. His priorities include fiscal responsibility and developing a strong, well-compensated city staff team to serve residents effectively.

Mr. Benefield has called Central Texas home since 1982 and chose Lago Vista for its unique character and outdoor lifestyle. He and his wife Allison, married since 1998, raised four children and enjoy the area's recreational opportunities, including boating, fishing, kayaking, and golf.

Known for his thoughtful approach to leadership, Council Member Benefield brings strong listening skills and advocacy capabilities to his role. He believes in collaborative decision-making while maintaining principled positions when necessary.
